Exail fas suls bililex

C. A. WEBBER IS NEW OWNER THEREOF.

Entire Printing Piant Passes to Well-

 Known Educator and BusinessMan.

Eugene B. Peck, editor of the Johnson County democrot. resterdiy soly , his entire prining plant, locared ax 118 E Waskington streer, west of lhe ciry ball, to C. A. Webber.

Mr. Webber formeny oneades a prinuing piant, located at $2 \cdot 4+211$ Eo. ! Dubuque steret. but it is his incos. tion io combine the two, and operave trem boty ax his new piace on Wast. ing:on streer.

M\% Teble: is webluown vrouz:our the city and county both bearse of hes somblid noris in ine city scooos anc his subsquent career as a prin-tr owning one of the prosper cus sop oftices of the cirs. He exnusses a coman desire to welcome ail his od customers ar hes new place of busmess ame assures them ary the rorons of his pedecessor, a hearty refotion and the same courreols treatment and considemation thet Lave marked his dealings win bis customers in the past.

That new parons will be bilden weicome to the Welber plant, and that ther will receive every avidence of appreciation and secure highclass printing goes without saying to the representatires of the "art presenrative of all aris." in fowa Ciry, for they know Mr. Webber's worth nex shil. and, even more than the lawman. wish him success in his new rencure.

