SUNDAY AND HOLIDAY OPENINGS

On October 2, the library resumes Sunday afternoon hours from 12 to 4pm. It will be open every Sunday until the end of May.

The Library Board of Trustees, at its July 28 meeting, also voted to open the library on three minor holidays this year: Veteran's Day (Nov. 11), the day after Thanksgiving (Nov. 25) and President's Day (Feb. 20).

Last year the library was closed on these three days because of budget constraints.

FRIENDS INCREASE SUPPORT OF LIBRARY'S HUMANITIES COLLECTION

At its May meeting, the Board of the FRIENDS of ICPL voted to donate another

$5,000 to the Foundation's Fund to Support the Library's Collection in the Humanities. Added to an earlier pledge, this brings the total FRIENDS' gift to this fund to $10,000. Both contributions qualify as local match for the library's $25,000 grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

This is just another example of the way membership dues and book sale proceeds are put to use for maximum benefit to our library," said FRIENDS president Linda Crim.

FRIENDS BOOK SALE SEPT. 10

From 10am 'til 4 pm in the library garage, find thousands of bargains in used books at prices under $1. Friends members or those who pay $2 can preview the sale from 9-10am.

LITERARY TOUR SLIDE SHOW

The FRIENDS of the Library invite the public to join them in reliving their Literary Tour of England, enjoyed last spring by 17 people. Sue Neufeld, tour coordinator, has prepared a slide/tape show which will be shown on Sunday, Sept. 11 at 3pm in Room A. Drop in for fascinating views of the houses and haunts of Dickens, Keats, Kipling and many more! It may inspire you to sign up for the 1989 tour!

ANNUAL RECEPTION FOR FOUNDATION DONORS

Look for your invitation to the Library Foundation reception for donors of $30.00 or more. This special thank you will be held on September 11. We hope you'll attend and give us a chance to express our appreciation in person.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEETING

The regular meeting of the Library Board of Trustees on Thursday, September 22, will feature discussion and approval of the FY90 goals and budget request. Board meetings are held at 4:00 pm. in the second floor conference room, and the public is invited.
