

Major, the well known saddle horse of Winfield Hughes, was stolen from his stable during the night. This morning Mr. Hughes found not only the horse missing, but his fine saddle and bridle, as well. The case is in the hands of Sheriff Hofer who has telephoned to all the nearby towns. However, there is no clue, as yet. It is believed and hoped that someone may have taken the horse merely for the time being and he may be returned later.