

FOUNDATION DIRECTOR MOVES TO HOOVER LIBRARY

Patricia H. Forsythe, director of the Library's Foundation since it was organized in 1982, resigned on March 3 to assume a new position as Director of Development for the Hoover Presidential Library Association in West Branch.

Pat is responsible for organizing the drive which has raised over $800,000 for ICPL. She is a Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE) and serves on regional and national boards for that association. She will continue to live in Iowa City with her family and to chair the May 6 House Tours for Iowa City's Sesquicentennial.

Calls or questions about Foundation business can be directed to Mark Weber who will be in charge of the Foundation Office until a new director is recruited.
