

IOWA CITY PUBLIC LIBRARY'S REACHING FOR NEW HEIGHTS CAMPAIGN RECEIVES $50,000 GIFT FROM NCS PEARSON

A generous $50,000 contribution from NCS Pearson puts the Iowa City Public Library Friends Foundation's Reaching for New Heights Campaign over the $1 million mark for furnishings and equipment for the new building.

“This gift is a strong reflection of NCS Pearson’s commitment to this community”, said Beth Beasley, Foundation Board President.

Library staff and Foundation Board members extend their appreciation to NCS Pearson for their support.

Development Director, Barbara Curtin,(left) thanks Mary Westbrook, Vice President Secondary Division for the NCS Pearson gift.