

LOOKING FORWARD

The Annual Fundraiser for the Iowa City Public Library

An Evening with Maureen Corrigan, America's most trusted and beloved book critic

The board of the Iowa City Public Library Friends Foundation invites you to join us for the third annual Looking Forward event. This unique fundraiser is created to expand horizons, continue to build long-standing camaraderie among the Library's key supporters and to encourage generous gifting to support the Iowa City Public Library.

Sunday, April 23, 2017

6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

Iowa City Public Library

6:00 p.m.

The Critic's Corner

NPR's "Fresh Air" beloved book critic Maureen Corrigan discusses her craft, the role of the critic, the tone she strives for, and the books new and old she loves.

7:00 p.m.

Hors d'oeuvres, libations, and conversation with other library friends in the main library

Looking Forward is generously sponsored by Hills Bank and Trust Company, Lensing Funeral and Cremation Service, MidWestOne Bank, and University of Iowa Community Credit Union, with additional support from Bread Garden Market, and Sheraton Iowa City Hotel.

Seating is limited to 200. Please respond online at www.icpl.org/support/looking-forward or use the enclosed card and return envelope.

ICPL Friends Foundation Board of Directors: Diane Baker, Wesley Beary, David J. Bright, Katy Brown, Julie Burton, Peggy Doerge, Laura Ebinger, Mitch Hames, Adam Ingersoll, Michael Lensing, Julie Monson, Jenny Olson, Jeff Rudolph, Joy Smith, Andy Swanson, Chris Vincent, and Yu Yu.

Reservations are $125.00 per person. RSVP by April 17, 2017.

ICPL.ORG/SUPPORT/LOOKING-FORWARD

