

FRIENDS FOUNDATION NEWS

IOWA CITY NOON OPTIMIST CONTRIBUTE HEARING DEVICES TO LIBRARY. As a component of a national program, "Help Them Hear" the local noon Optimist Club has contributed hearing devices for the meeting rooms at the Iowa City Public Library. This gift, added to a similar one donated by the group last year, brings the total units available to the public to ten. Shown left to right is Jim Harvey, Youth treasurer; Deborah Sales, Director of Development, Iowa City Public Library; Tom Bender, president, Noon Optimist and Al Stang, vice president.

IOWA CITY HOST NOON LIONS CLUB ADD TO HISTORY FUND AT LIBRARY. Officers of the Lions Club presenting a check for $1,082 to Deborah Sales, Director of Development at the Iowa City Public Library, are shown left to right: Del Brown, president; David Frantz, vice president; Irving Weber and Bob Libby, treasurer. The funds were collected through proceeds of Weber's newest edition of Irving Weber's Iowa City and will be added to the Irving Weber Lions Club Endowment Fund used to purchase materials on local history.

IOWA CITY PUBLIC LIBRARY FRIENDS FOUNDATION CELEBRATE MERGER WITH NEW GIVING WALL. Marv Hartwig, President, Dave Johansen, treasurer, Kent Swaim, Library Trustees President, and Deborah Sales, Director of Development are shown with the new cumulative giving wall, located in the College Street lobby, that was unveiled during a celebration held recently in connection with the merger. Over 100 individuals and businesses have attained various giving levels through cumulative gifts to the library.

