

FOUNDATION CELEBRATES LEADERSHIP GIFTS

The most recent gift of $10,000 from the Holiday Inn-Iowa City has propelled the Foundation very close to meeting its goal of matching the National Endowment for the Humanities grant this year. The Holiday Inn-Iowa City, in making this gift, noted how mutually rewarding their relationship was with Iowa City. We are honored by their investment in the Iowa City Public Library and its Foundation. Leadership Gifts are gifts of $10,000 and over, and we are grateful for the following Partners in Leadership in addition to the Holiday Inn-Iowa City.

The First National Bank of Iowa City
Edwin B. Green
Hansen Lind Meyer
Hills Bank and Trust Company
Iowa State Bank and Trust Company
Security Abstract
U. S. West Communications (N. W. Bell)

We commend these generous donors for their support. We also thank ALL OF OUR DONORS, without whom the Centennial Endowment would not be possible. Thanks to all of you for your committed and thoughtful support!!!

The Sustaining Fund is underway with a goal of $40,000 this year. If you have not yet made your gift, please consider the tax advantages of supporting the Library Foundation before December 31, 1988. (This is especially important if you itemize.)

ICPL HOSPICE ROAD RACES TEAM TRIUMPHS!

In team challenge competition at the October 23 Hospice/United Way Road Races, ICPL walkers and runners took first place and won the Bill Rodgers traveling track shoe trophy. They raised $2,330 in pledges for local non-profit service agencies and defeated the U. of I. Libraries team!
